Appox. DAR Hears Va. Regent

Mrs. Robert B. Smith, State Regent, was guest of the Appomattox Chapter DAR, at a luncheon meeting on February 21st. She brought before the group the threefold purposes of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. They are: Historical, Educational and Patriotic.

Historical — To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American independence.

Educational — To promote as an object of primary importance provisions for general diffusion of knowledge.

Patriotic — To cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; to foster true patriotism and love of country."

At the National Headquarters in Washington, the Society maintains two public educational exhibits. These are the American Museum, a genealogical reference library both are open daily to the public with guide service free.

Mrs. Smith emphasized the society is non-political, stated the organization urged its members to support good American citizens to be formed and to exercise a privilege of the franchise at the polls, but how one votes is entirely to the individual.

The main business session was to elect delegates and alternates to the Continental Congress, which convenes in Washington, D. C. the 96th in April 1965.
